

Joseph John Bridy

Senior Partner

Bucknell University, BA Finance and Economics, Cum Laude, 1998

Cornell University Johnson Graduate School of Management, MBA in Finance with High Distinction, May 2004

Mr. Bridy, Senior Partner and Fixed Income Portfolio Manager, joined Hamlin in July 2004. Mr. Bridy manages Hamlin's Fixed Income Team. He oversees all fixed income commitments in addition to overseeing the sourcing and structuring of new fixed income investment opportunities. Prior to Hamlin Mr. Bridy was an analyst in the Fixed Income Division at Goldman Sachs. He then worked as an equity trader and junior portfolio manager at Oscar Capital LLC, a long-short equity hedge fund, founded by former Goldman Sachs executives. During his finance studies at Cornell, Mr. Bridy was awarded the AHA scholarship honoring academic excellence and the Dean's Leading Edge Award recognizing his outstanding contribution to the business school community. He is currently a trustee at Berea College where he serves on Berea's finance and investment committees as part of a team that oversees the college's $1 billion investment endowment and $50 million annual operating budget. Mr. Bridy is also a member of the MSRB's Investor Advisory Group, which advises the MSRB's Board of Directors on matters relating to municipal market practices and investor protection issues.

jbridy@hamlincm.com