

Craig W. Henderson

President

Craig Henderson, a native of Grosse Pointe, Michigan and longtime resident of Chicago, graduated from Western Michigan University with a degree in accounting and mathematics. After successful completion of the CPA exam in 1975, Craig joined the First Boston Corporation in New York where he traded municipal securities for two years. He then relocated to the firm's Chicago office where he spent the following thirteen years selling municipal securities to major institutional accounts in the Midwest.

Craig managed First Boston's municipal securities division in Chicago from 1982-1989. In addition, Craig has served as president of the Municipal Bond Club of Chicago, as well as an arbitrator for both the N.A.S.D. and the M.S.R.B. He is also a member of the President's Council for the Daniel Murphy Scholarship Foundation and past President and Treasurer of the Chicago Charter School Foundation.

In September 1990, Craig formed C.W. Henderson & Associates, Inc. a registered investment advisory organization specializing in tax-exempt municipal securities.
